Dextrys Ranks at the Top of China's IT Outsourcing Enterprises

The 2009 Annual Conference of Economy and IT Applications Recognizes Dextrys Among the Top Three Software Outsourcing Enterprises in China

WAKEFIELD, Mass. – January 1st, 2010 —Dextrys, a premier US-based China outsourcing firm delivering Product Engineering and Application Services, today announced that it was recognized as a top software outsourcing enterprise and ranked third among the top ten outsourcing organizations by the China Federation of IT Promotion (CFIP), the China Software Industry Association (CSIA), and China's Economic and Information Network (www.enicn.com). The award was recently presented to Dextrys at the 2009 Annual Conference of Economy and IT Applications held in Beijing, China.

Although 2009 marked the sixth annual conference of Economy and IT Applications, it was the first year organizers included awards specifically for software outsourcing in the IT industry. Winners, including Dextrys, were selected for their influence and success within the outsourcing industry. Additionally, Dextrys' Asia operations president, James Tong, served as a distinguished guest panelist at the conference offering his expertise and analysis of development trends and predictions for the future of China's software outsourcing industry.

“We are delighted to be recognized as one of China's top 10 IT software outsourcing enterprises, particularly in this award's inaugural year,” said Brian Keane, CEO of Dextrys. “We have long extolled the value of China to our existing and prospective clients. With China's extraordinary technical talent, consistent project management and delivery processes, and reliable quality assurance, we are able to consistently provide exceptional service to our clients.”

This most recent honor as one of China's top 10 IT Outsourcing Enterprises marks the latest in what has been a very successful year for Dextrys. The company has received numerous 2009 industry accolades from varied organizations including:

- China's Top 10 ITO enterprises – recognized by leaders of China's Ministry of Information and Industry, the National Development and Reform Commission, and the China Software Industry Association.
- Top 10 service outsourcing providers in China – recognized by Chinasourcing, an international consulting company focused on the service outsourcing industry.
- Top R&D service provider and top-10 positions in consumer electronics and automotive vertical distinctions – recognized by Zinnov Consulting, a management consulting company providing services in the area of offshore advisory and market expansion and to Fortune 1000 companies.
